FROM RABBI HAYON

*May this year
bring all of us
the opportunity to recenter ourselves, and may we come to know the sweetness
of Shabbat:
a precious opportunity for us to find replenishment,
rest and renewal.*

“April is the cruelest month,” wrote T.S. Eliot – but he was wrong. Everyone who lives in Houston can tell you definitively: August is much crueler than April!

This month brings the most unpleasant weather of the year, our children return reluctantly from camp, and families’ summer vacations draw to a close so they can prepare for a new school year. I often visualize the image that the late John Prine sings about in his song “Summer’s End”: “Summer’s end is around the bend, just flyin’ / The swimming suits are on the line just dryin’.” This month, those who fled Houston’s summer heat in search of cooler climates begin making their way home, and many of us are forced to confront long-postponed projects at work and home. August is here, and summer’s end is around the bend.

The trick, of course, is to find a way to hold on to summer’s gifts during the rest of the year. Too often, the relaxation and decompression that we work so hard to make possible over the summer simply vaporizes when we come back home and return to the daily grind of work or school. Family dinners, leisurely conversations and time spent on hobbies and other soul-filling hobbies feel harder to find during the rest of the year. Fortunately, Judaism offers us an effective remedy for this annual challenge, an ancient and powerful spiritual technology: the practice of Shabbat.

Taking some time to observe a day of rest every week has demonstrable benefits for our spiritual and emotional lives. Making space in our homes and in our calendars to slow down and recharge our batteries is a reliable practice to help restore our inner well-being. Even simple practices like lighting candles, enjoying a glass of wine, or playing a board game with friends or family can give our minds and bodies a much-needed opportunity to recover from the stresses of the work week. If you aren't doing so already, I encourage you to try incorporating some Shabbat experiences into the weekly rhythm of your life. I'm confident that you will feel the benefits of this precious opportunity for rest and recovery almost immediately.

At our congregation's Annual Meeting this past spring, I shared with you that our Board of Trustees has graciously extended to me the benefit of a six-month sabbatical period to be included in my employment agreement. Since receiving the Board's approval, I have been hard at work with my staff and clergy partners to make plans and arrangements for this valuable time of rest and rejuvenation.

To ensure that my sabbatical will not be overly disruptive to our ritual and holiday schedule, I plan to schedule it in two three-month blocks, which will largely overlap with the holiday vacations at the end of the calendar year. The first block will begin around Thanksgiving this year, and as it gets closer, I will look forward to sharing more details with you about how I will be spending my sabbatical. After the High Holy Days, you will receive more detailed communications from me and from our temple's lay leadership about the ways we will ensure that the care and healthy functioning of our large community will remain solidly in place during my extended time away from the office.

I am so grateful for this generous benefit. "Sabbatical," of course, shares a linguistic root with the Hebrew word "Shabbat"; both concepts are rooted in the notion that a pause from labor results in greater fruitfulness and better health for an individual or a community. Congregation Emanu El's practice of encouraging clergy sabbatical is built upon this same principle: the understanding that regular periods of rest and replenishment are vital to a sustainable long-term future of wellness and productivity. I am well aware that the benefit of clergy sabbatical represents a significant investment in a rabbi or cantor, and I am extremely thankful for the way it reflects our congregation's faith in me.

Now that summer's end is nearly upon us, I am hopeful that we will all return refreshed and rededicated to our regular schedules of work and study, and that we will find a renewed commitment to spend our finite time on things that really matter: the bonds of family and friendship, our obligations to our community, and the meaningful practice of working to repair our broken world. May this year bring all of us the opportunity to recenter ourselves, and may we come to know the sweetness of Shabbat: a precious opportunity for us to find replenishment, rest and renewal.

A Notice About Bereavement Communications

Bereavement notices for our temple family are distributed with the permission of the deceased's family, and the timing of these notices is dictated by the family's request. Of course, each family grieves in its own way, and we are grateful for our congregation's patience and understanding with different families' preferences about how their loss is publicized.

Construction Update

IMPORTANT TRANSFORMATIONS ARE HAPPENING

Construction Update

Construction of The Jerold B. Katz Family Center for Jewish Learning is officially underway. In July, construction crews installed a temporary walkway that will be in use through completion of construction. Becker Camp pre-k and kindergarten kids and Emanu El staff had an opportunity to write their names in concrete. Also in July, the temporary cottages and sukkah were demolished.

In August, you can expect to see (and hear!) demo and removal of concrete under the temporary cottages and former walkway, and prep for the new building's foundation. Construction crews will do their best to mitigate dust, and we will work closely with the Becker School administration team to plan inside activities for days we expect to be excessively dusty.

Parking spaces outside the reception area or Rotunda are now exclusively reserved for accessible parking and drop off. Once those spaces are filled, please use Level 1 in the Gaylor Parking Facility. Levels 2-4 are to be used by all other members, guests, and visitors. Level 5 (the roof) is reserved for construction workers.

Construction progress updates and key information are posted each Tuesday at <https://emanuelhouston.org/construction>, and on Facebook and Instagram, and in the Wednesday eletter. If information needs to be communicated quickly, we will use email and/or text message. If you are not already receiving our weekly text Shabbat messages, please add your cell number to your Shulcloud account.

This annual Sisterhood tradition marks the beginning of an exciting year filled with inspiring programming for members and welcomes guests interested in joining the Sisterhood.

“Under Construction: Building Memories at Becker Summer Camp!”

This summer, The Becker School has been buzzing with creativity, laughter, and learning as we dove headfirst into our Becker Construction theme, in conjunction with the start of construction on The Jerold B. Katz Family Center for Jewish Learning. With hard hats on and imaginations in high gear, our campers have spent the summer exploring new ideas and creating joyful moments together.

The summer program at Becker was a hub of creativity and exploration. Every week brought new adventures, from splash-filled Water Days every Friday to joyful music sessions with local favorite Rachel Buchman.

Campers also enjoyed a variety of exciting “in-house field trips” featuring special guests. Highlights included visits from Orion, the Sugar Land Space Cowboys mascot; Toro and cheerleaders from the Houston Texans; Pirate Pete from Children’s Express Theater; and the ever-popular Mad Science crew. We also sang, danced, and giggled with Tom’s Fun Band, an interactive musical group known for original songs and world-class silliness that had both kids and adults grooving along. Children had the chance to kick, twirl, and pose with Tippy Toes Ballet, practice soccer skills with Soccer Shots, and explore photography with Isle Monette, who helped them capture camp life through a fresh lens. Additional memorable moments included hands-on fun with the Houston Mobile Petting Zoo, a special visit from author Joy Saxton, who read from her book Joy Goes to Mexico and shared her cultural journey, and a smile-filled dental health lesson from Dr. Alejandra Guzman.

Community involvement made this summer even more special. Becker welcomed 15 teen volunteers, including students from the Emery Weiner School and members of Congregation Emanu El, who served as kind-hearted role models for younger campers. The school also celebrated new babies in the Becker family, with beloved great-grandmother Bitsy Proler regularly stopping by to read and nurture the littlest learners.

From books to bubbles, builders to ballet, this summer laid the foundation for friendship, joy, and growth. With the spirit of construction in the air Becker Camp reminded us all that the best memories are the ones we build together.

We appreciate the thoughtfulness of those who remember and honor their friends and loved ones through their generous contributions through July 10, 2025.

GENERAL INFORMATION

DIGITAL PASSES

Emanu El will again be using digital passes for High Holy Day services.

You must be a member in good standing to receive High Holy Day passes. Each adult member of your household will receive one digital pass via email which may be used for all High Holy Day services. If only one member of your household has an email address on file, passes for all adults will be emailed to that address. You will receive an email from orders@simpletix.com which will be sent to the email address in your ShulCloud account.

You can print your pass at home or save it on your phone to be scanned when you arrive for services. Passes can also be saved to your Apple Wallet or Google Wallet. Your name will be on your pass and passes are NOT transferrable. Please remember to bring your cell phones or printed versions of your digital passes. Only individuals with High Holy Days passes will be permitted entry to the Emanu El campus.

As in previous years, members in good standing may request up to two passes for out-of-town guests. Please email Lisa Damen at lisad@emanuelhouston.org with the name and email address of your guests so that they can receive the simpletix email with their guest pass.

We also welcome members of the community who have moved to Houston since last High Holy Days. Please ask them to contact Anna Shabtay at 713.529.5771, ext. 261 or AnnaS@emanuelhouston.org to arrange for newcomer passes.

PARKING

Levels 1 and 2 of the Gaylor Parking Facility will be reserved for accessible parking. Space is limited and we encourage you to park off-site. Buses will run continuously between satellite parking and Emanu El.

Parking for Erev Rosh HaShanah and Kol Nidre will be at the Medical Clinic of Houston (1707 Sunset Blvd; the parking garage entrance is on Rice Blvd). Parking for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur will be available at Rice University. For Tashlich, we encourage you to take the shuttle to and from Emanu El as parking near Bill Coats Bridge is limited.

ACCESSIBILITY

Accessible seating is available for High Holy Day services, but seats must be reserved by September 10. Please contact Christian Simmons at 713.529.5771, ext. 262, or christians@emanuelhouston.org, and include the service(s) you plan to attend. Those requesting accessible seating may be granted a maximum of four additional seats for family members. Please note this seating will be released 15 minutes prior to the beginning of services.

We're deeply grateful to the supporters of this transformative project for Congregation Emanu El. To add your name to this list, please go to <https://emanuelhouston.org/ForOurFuture> or contact Anna Shabtay, Director of Congregational Advancement, at AnnaS@emanuelhouston.org.
