Endowment Speaker Series 2025-26

Join us in February as we kick off another season of the Endowment Speaker Series. This year's theme — Jewish Life: Community, Cuisine & Culture — invites us to explore Jewish identity through storytelling and the universal language of food.

Lani Anpo
Advocate for global indigenous and Jewish communities

Thursday, February 5 7:00 p.m.

Lani Anpo is a multi-tribal Native American and Jewish advocate, speaker, and content creator who works at the intersection of Indigenous rights and Jewish identity. Her advocacy centers on confronting anti-Indigenous and antisemitic narratives, and she often describes her work as “IndiJewnous” activism that bridges Indigenous and Jewish communities.

The Emanu El Endowment Speaker Series is made possible by Nathan Berg Lecture Series Fund, Caplovitz Lectureship Fund, Eleanor & Frank Freed Fund, and Helen & Harry Reichel Fund.
